Acknowledgments

The Eudora software was designed and written by Steve Dorner, Pete Resnick, Scott Gruby, John Boyd, Alan Bird, Martin Naiman, John Purlia, Clarence Wong, Christine Park, and Forest Hill. This manual was written by Armand Rouleau. Artwork was provided by John Dennis and Karen Hesterman, and icons were designed by Arlo Rose.

Thanks to Tim Maroney for the folder-choosing code, John Norstad for the window placement code, John Bruner for the Mishawaka font, Ray Davison for the Include Self code, David Johnson for the BinHex code, and Cal Simone of Mainstay for help in redesigning Eudora's AppleScript Dictionary.

Finally, thanks to all the users and testers of Eudora Pro, whose suggestions have made it a much better program than it otherwise would have been.

About the Name

Why the name Eudora?

When looking for a name for this new Post Office Protocol mail program, we thought immediately of the title of the short story “Why I Live at the P.O.,” and named the program after the author of the story, Eudora Welty.

“Why I Live at the P.O.” can be found in a collection entitled A Curtain of Green and other stories (Harcourt Brace & Co.). Ms. Welty’s stories are funny, sad, and fascinating; she’s surely one of the great American writers.

New Features Manual

Introduction

Welcome to Eudora 4.3! This manual describes the new features and functions in Eudora 4.3 for the Macintosh.

- Introducing Eudora in Three Modes. You can now choose to use Eudora in one of three operating modes: Sponsored, Paid or Light!
- History List Creation. A history list of all recipients of your messages now resides in your address book. This list records all email addresses you enter in the To:, Cc:, or Bcc: fields of the message header when you send mail. When you send messages to these people again, their email names and addresses are included in the automatic nickname completion list.
- Link History. Link history tracks and links Internet web sites and ads you clicked in Eudora.
- SMTP Authentication. Eudora can authenticate an SMTP server (sending mail) not only with CRAM-MD5, but also with LOGIN and PLAIN authentication methods.
- HTML only. HTML is now the only text enriched function in Eudora. The old text enriched function has been removed from Eudora because it has become an outdated standard and cannot be used by several newer email software applications.

Introducing Eudora in Three Operating Modes

This software is designed to allow you to choose from three different operating modes:

■ Sponsored mode

This mode provides the full-featured Eudora desktop email client at no charge, supported by sponsors' advertising. It includes all of the features that are in Eudora Pro 4.2 (the most recent commercial release), providing a major upgrade for the millions of people who now use Eudora Light (the less powerful freeware version).

■ Paid mode

In this mode, Eudora leads you through the payment process, then activates the full-featured desktop email client without advertising.

■ Light mode

This is an upgrade to the freeware version formerly known as Eudora Light. It includes fewer features than the other modes and a sponsor image or logo, but no advertising.

Installation and Upgrades

The current release installs in the Sponsored mode. The Paid and Light modes have not yet been implemented, but will be available in the upcoming commercial release.

Important. If you have purchased a copy of Eudora Pro 4.x, you will be able to upgrade to the new Paid mode at no cost.

If you retrieve Eudora 4.3 from the Eudora web site, you will be installing Eudora Sponsored. If you buy Eudora 4.3 in a product box at a retail store, you will be installing Eudora Email in paid mode. You can change Eudora's mode by selecting Payment and Registration from the Help menu.

Choosing a Eudora Mode

To change a Eudora mode after you install Eudora 4.3, do the following.

- 1 From the Help menu, choose Payment & Registration. The Payment and Registration dialog appears.

Help menu and the Payment & Registration dialog

- 2 In the Which Eudora is right for you? section:
 - To use Eudora Email in sponsored mode, click Sponsored Mode (free, with ads). Eudora displays the ad window.
 - To use Eudora Email in paid mode, click Paid Mode (costs money, no ads). Eudora displays the Eudora web site for you to purchase Eudora.
 - To use Eudora Email in light mode, click Light Mode (free, fewer features). Eudora changes to Eudora Email in light mode by shutting down certain features.
- 3 In the Keeping Current section:

- To register your copy of Eudora, click Register with Us. Eudora takes you to Eudora's registration web site page. If you are using Eudora in either sponsored or paid mode, you need to register to be eligible for technical support. If you don't register or use Eudora in light mode, you are not eligible for technical support.
 - To customize the ads, click Customize the Ads You See. Eudora displays a web site where you can provide information about yourself to help in customizing ads to display to you.
 - To find the most current version of Eudora, click Find the Latest Update to Eudora. The Eudora web site displays for you to retrieve the latest version of Eudora.
- 4 In the Your Registration Information section, click Change Your Registration to change your registration when you change from one Eudora mode to another. The Registration dialog appears.

Registration dialog box

The image shows a registration dialog box with a title bar. Inside, there's a message: "Thank you for your registration! To complete your registration, please enter the name you registered under and your registration code below." Below this, it asks for the exact name registered under, with fields for "First Name:" (containing "Robert") and "Last Name:" (containing "Montgomery"). Then, it asks for the "Your registration code:" with a field containing "xxxx12345". At the bottom, there are three buttons: "I Lost the Code", "Cancel", and "OK".

Thank you for your registration!

To complete your registration, please enter the name you registered under and your registration code below.

The exact name you registered under:

First Name: Robert Last Name: Montgomery

Your registration code: xxxx12345

I Lost the Code Cancel OK

- 5 Enter the information and click OK.
- Note. If you cannot find your Eudora registration code, click I Lost the Code. The Eudora web site appears for you to search for your registration code.
- 6 When finished, click OK or to cancel, click Cancel.
- To access the Eudora web site, click Take me to the Eudora web site for more information button.

Recipient History List

A history list of all recipients of your messages now resides in your address book, located in your nickname list. The history file consists of names and email addresses of people you have previously sent, forwarded, or replied to messages within Eudora. When you send messages to these people again, their email names and addresses are included in the automatic nickname completion list.

Sample History List in the Address book

Auto-completion allows you to enter a portion of a name in the To:, Cc:, and Bcc: fields, and Eudora automatically completes the name for you. Just start typing and Eudora attempts to complete the name. If multiple recipients match the text you've entered, press Command + , (comma) to display a list of names from both your history file and address book. Select the correct name, and the name and email address appear in the field.

Link History

Link History is a new option on the Window menu that displays Internet web site addresses, other links, and ads you clicked in Eudora.

To display your link history window, do the following.

- 1 From the Window menu, choose Link History. The Link History window appears.

Link History menu option and window

- 2 To activate a link in the list, double-click to highlight and launch it, or click View. To remove the link from the list, click Remove.
